

Focal unveils the Scala Utopia Evo M French audio savoir-faire at its best

HANDCRAFTED
IN FRANCE

With the Scala Utopia Evo M hi-fi speaker, Focal is opening a new chapter in the history of the iconic Scala Utopia model, once again pushing the boundaries of sound performance. Combining sculptural design, French savoir-faire and cutting-edge sound performance, the Scala Utopia Evo M transforms every listening experience into a deeply emotional one.

THE EXCELLENCE OF FOCAL FRENCH SAVOIR-FAIRE

Developed and manufactured in France, the Scala Utopia Evo M embodies Focal's excellence in craftsmanship and technology. Its wooden cabinet, crafted with precision by cabinet-makers in Burgundy, interacts with acoustic components created and assembled in the brand's historic workshops in Saint-Étienne. The speaker expresses its unique expertise, combining innovation and exacting standards to create an object that is as exceptional to listen to as it is to behold.

A SOUND SIGNATURE BORN OF INNOVATION

The fruit of Focal's latest acoustic advances, the speaker incorporates exclusive innovations acclaimed by sound producers and engineers. The sound reproduction is even more expressive, precise and controlled. Each component has been designed to offer perfect sound consistency, revealing the richness of recordings. This top-of-the-range technology takes a back seat to the pleasure of listening at home. The Scala Utopia Evo M reveals voices with incredible realism, delivers deep bass and reproduces the smallest details with finesse. With this speaker, music comes alive.

A SPEAKER TO BEHOLD

True to Utopia's aesthetic signature, the Scala Utopia Evo M captivates with its sculptural lines and balanced proportions. It blends naturally into the most refined interiors, becoming a design object as much as a high-precision instrument. Available in a range of sophisticated finishes (deep lacquers and fine woods) it embodies discreet, contemporary luxury.

A COMPLETE HI-FI SOLUTION

For the ultimate musical experience, the speaker works hand in hand with Naim Audio amplification and streaming systems, a brand closely associated with Focal. And you get to enjoy a complete system, where power, musicality and control are expressed in perfect harmony.

Recommended retail price:
EUR 40,000 / USD 46,000 per pair in lacquered finish.
