

Focal unveils Mu-so Hekla: Immersive sound reinvented

Focal is redefining home cinema with Mu-so Hekla, an elegant all-in-one system that fuses exceptional performance with effortless ease-of-use. Designed to transform everyday moments into deeply immersive, emotion-filled experiences, Mu-so Hekla is the perfect balance of power, beauty, and versatility for modern living, integrating seamlessly into your everyday routine.

SPECTACULAR IMMERSION

Inspired by Iceland's Hekla volcano, the system delivers powerful, enveloping sound thanks to Dolby Atmos® technology. Whether it's films, music, or video games, Mu-so Hekla enhances every piece of content with breathtaking spatial audio, powered by the acoustic and electronic expertise of Focal and Naim.

ADVANCED TECHNOLOGY, SIMPLY CONTROLLED

Mu-so Hekla is effortless to set up and use, connecting seamlessly to your music sources, including high-resolution streaming. Control it your way through the Focal & Naim app, smartwatch (Apple, Samsung), voice assistant or your home automation system.

EXCELLENCE MADE SIMPLE

Crafted from anodised aluminium, Mu-so Hekla packs 15 speaker drivers and 660 watts of power to comfortably fill rooms up to 40m² with rich, detailed sound. Intelligent tuning adapts to your room and listening preferences for a perfectly personalised experience.

Launched on 6th November, the product will initially be available in South Korea and China, followed by a global release starting in the first quarter of 2026.

It will be showcased at CES in Las Vegas (6-9 January 2026) and ISE in Barcelona (3-6 February 2026).
